

MARKET

Lake County is projected to grow in population and employment through 2040, but at a slower pace than historical trends.

Lake County Population

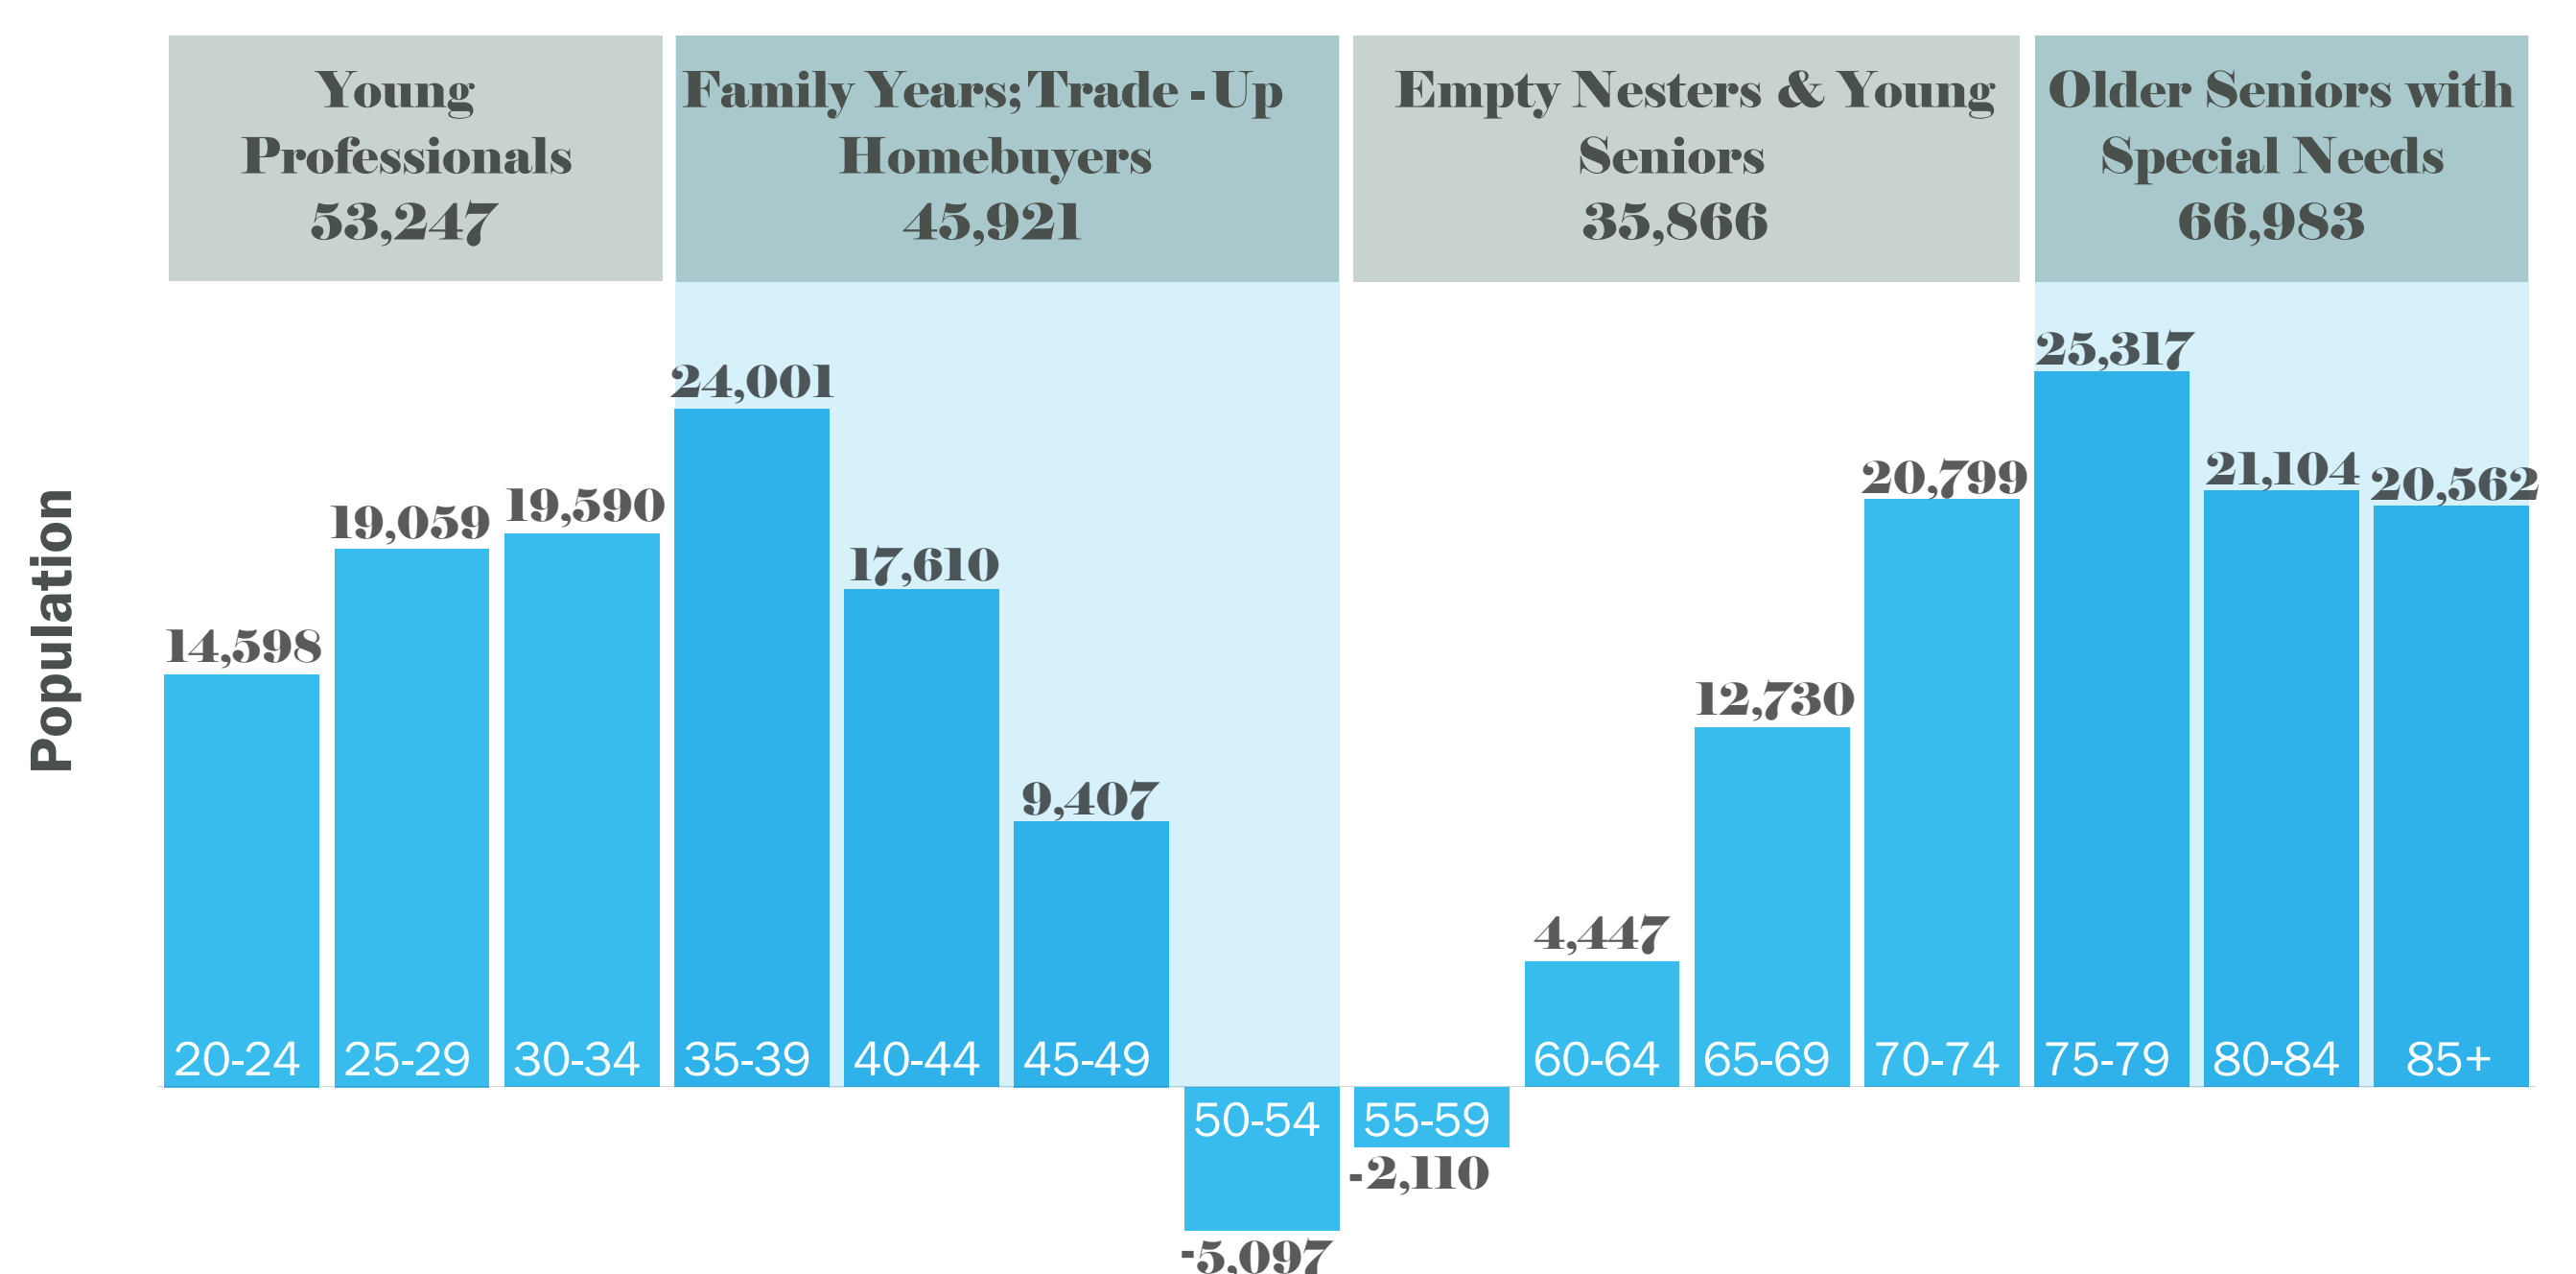

Lake County Employment

Forecasted Change in Lake County Population by Age, Lake County 2014-2040

The largest increases in population are expected to occur among older seniors and among young professionals. These groups are likely to want different housing, mobility and employment opportunities than currently exist.

Lake County Employment by Sector

Office is projected to have the largest increase in employment within Lake County, compared to industrial and retail.

